

English

Mikołaj Woźniak is a Polish pianist born in Zielona Góra in 2003. He is currently studying at the Hochschule für Musik Basel in the class of Professor Claudio Martínez-Mehner. He has won first prizes in several national and international piano competitions and is active as both a soloist and chamber musician. Over the past two years, he has had the opportunity to study with György Kurtág, Kirill Gerstein, Robert Levin, and Andreas Staier, further enriching his musical perspective.

Mikołaj adapts his interpretations to each performance venue and context and is equally dedicated to solo and ensemble repertoire. He has performed in renowned concert halls across Europe and regularly collaborates with other musicians in chamber music formations, including a duo with cellist Michał Balas. Since 2014, he has been supported by the Europäische Stiftung der Rahn Dittrich Group für Bildung und Kultur, based in Leipzig.